

Taina Caballero

tacaballero.github.io

511 Fostertown Road, Newburgh, NY 12550

845-549-3553

tcaballero.ptech@gmail.com

Resume Objective

I'm interested in filling an internship position with the IBM Supply Chain Engineering organization.

Education

- Completed two years of schooling at Newburgh Free Academy North Campus
- Grade Point Average: 90.1
- Completed four semesters of appointed coursework at Suny Orange
- Grade Point Average: 4.0

Relevant High School and College Studies

- Exploring Computer Science
- Technology Innovation and Integration
- CIT 100 Computer Literacy
- CIT 105 Data Communications and Intro to Networking
- CIT 112 Computer Hardware and Software
- CIT 217 Linux

Experience

Robotics Club Secretary and Member

- Organized and maintained the club binder containing information regarding competition details, robot construction plans and sketches, as well as member contributions.
- Handled composing and sending out emails regarding team meetings.
- Worked alongside other team members deciphering and creating several programs using Java and JavaScript to successfully operate our self-constructed robot.

Newburgh Armory Unity Center

- Worked as a student facilitator in the Computer Science program taught at the Newburgh Armory Unity Center.
- Currently creating and teaching coding curriculum including Scratch, Lego Mindstorms, and JavaScript to the youth of Newburgh (children between grades 2-8)
- Teaching to importance of structural programming to the today's adolescents.

Girls Who Code (Newburgh Free Library)

- Aided the development of a community impact project involving several coding languages.
- Worked alongside adolescent females to garner their interest in a technology based program.
- Contributed in creating an anti-drugs and violence awareness app.

Activities

Slavery Awareness Fair Project

- Aided the designing and creation of a fully functioning website, spreading the awareness of modern day slavery-
- Served as a project manager for the website team, filling in roles that allowed me to orchestrate and mandate a majority of the activities my team members sought out to fulfill.

Online Portfolio

- Created a fully functioning online portfolio utilizing HTML, JavaScript, and CSS.

Community Outreach

Habitat for Humanity Walk (2015, 2016)

- Walked to raise funds and awareness for safe, decent, and affordable housing for hardworking local families in need.
- Participated in such events to bring attention to the issue of substandard and poverty housing in the City of Newburgh and around the world.

Newburgh Community Cleanup (2016)

- Aided others apart of Excelsior and other youth groups in the cleansing of Newburgh streets and spreading awareness regarding earthly pollution and the endeavors in which we can stop it.

Party in Pink: Breast Cancer Awareness Event

GoRed! American Heart Association Zumba Event

- Volunteered in the organization and fulfillment of event planning.
- Participated in the act of doing Zumba in order to raise awareness and funding for the cause.

Global to Local

- Served as a member to a service learning organization.
- Working alongside other members planning and fundraising for a volunteer trip to Quito, Ecuador.

Skillset

- Computer/Technical Literacy
- Adaptability/Managing Multiple Priorities
- Proficient in several programming languages (HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Scratch etc.)
- Organization
- Creativity
- Professionalism
- Willingness to Learn

References

Felicita Colon-Cordero

Program Director at the Boys and Girls Club of Newburgh
917-446-7165

Jessica Vega

Senior Corporate Accountant at Arch Capital Services Inc.
845-401-5665

Lisa Boun

Principal of Horizons on the Hudson Magnet School
845-563-3725